PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I built a founder's voice model in Claude Code on his own books and talks, turning publishing from writing into approving, and my own chief of staff agent: 360 marketing automation that brainstorms, drafts and runs its own fact-checking research agents. Three years senior writer for Nilkamal, the world's largest moulded furniture manufacturer, on the blogs, ad copy and PDP pages of its mattress line, and for Asian Paints, India's largest paint company at $3.8bn, on its website content repository. I led marketing for a D2C brain health startup, built its creative team and wrote the pitch that raised $1M across Shark Tank India and Meet the Drapers. And set the tone of voice for a halal investing platform through its rebrand, every word cleared through US SEC compliance in four markets.

SELECTED ACHIEVEMENTS

- Wrote the blogs, ad copy and PDP pages for Nilkamal Sleep's memory foam, orthopaedic, latex and spring mattresses, sold online on a trial and warranty model.
- Turned technical product specs into Amazon A+ product detail content for Everest (one of India's largest spice brands), Freudenberg Gala (household cleaning) and Bergner (cookware).
- Wrote Where the Heart Is and Kaamyabi Ke Rang for Asian Paints, India's largest paint company: 62M+ reach, 1.2M YouTube subscribers.
- Lifted global brand awareness at Wahed from 4.5% to 30% by launching the Muslim Money Guys podcast with Paul Pogba, Khabib and Islam.
